LEADERS SUPPORTING LEADERS

The American Association of Psychiatric Administration and Leadership (AAPAL), established in 1961 (formerly known as the American Association of Psychiatric Administrators or AAPA), is the premiere educational, networking, and support resource for psychiatrists interested in leadership and psychiatric administration. The AAPAL promotes medical leadership and medical excellence in behavioral healthcare systems, including services for mental illness, substance use disorders, and developmental disabilities. With the ultimate aim of enhancing the effectiveness, efficiency, and humanity in service delivery, the AAPAL seeks to promote the professional development of psychiatrists as leaders:

- at all levels of expertise, from novice to experts.
- who practice in sites of varying complexity, from solo practice to large healthcare systems.
- who represent various sectors, including public, private, and academia.

Members of the AAPAL...

- ... are connected and supported through a nationwide network of new and experienced psychiatric leaders and administrators.
- ... receive training through AAPAL-sponsored educational content designed for psychiatric leaders and administrators.
- ... promote achievement in psychiatric leadership and administration and awareness through AAPAL-sponsored awards.
- ... support continuing education and reward excellence in psychiatric leadership and administration by co-sponsoring lectures and awards with the APA.
- ... develop skills through AAPAL-sponsored workshops and programs annually at the APA Meetings.
- ... advocate for improved mental health care delivery by addressing leadership and management issues.
- ... benefit from the knowledge and experience of expert members and guest speakers at the AAPAL events held during the APA's annual meeting.
- ... create a forum to discuss issues and to convey matters of interest to the community regarding mental health care delivery.
- ... address issues relevant to the education of medical students, psychiatry residents, fellows and early career psychiatrists in the theory and practice of leadership and administration.

Institutional Memberships

- ... receive 2 Grand Round speakers annually
- ... receive 2 educational webinars annually
- ... receive 3-part Leadership Course annually
- ... 1-25, 25-100, and 101+ Members Levels
